Section: Characteristics of Birds 1. Which characteristic do birds share with reptiles? a. horny beaks b. feet and legs covered with thick scales c. feathers and wings d. endothermic bodies FEATHERS 2. Birds preen by a. spreading oil on their feathers. b. fluttering their feathers. c. shedding old feathers. d. growing new feathers. 3. The process of shedding old feathers and growing new ones is called 4. Feathers that lie close to a bird's body and that keep it warm are called feathers. 5. Feathers on the outside of the bird's body that form its shape and help it to fly are called feathers. HIGH-ENERGY ANIMALS 6. How do birds cool off? FAST DIGESTION Match the correct description with the correct term. Write the letter in the space provided. 7. This organ stores food after the bird swallows. b. intestine
Section: Characteristics of Birds 1. Which characteristic do birds share with reptiles? a. horny beaks b. feet and legs covered with thick scales c. feathers and wings d. endothermic bodies FEATHERS 2. Birds preen by a. spreading oil on their feathers. b. fluttering their feathers. c. shedding old feathers. d. growing new feathers. 3. The process of shedding old feathers and growing new ones is called 4. Feathers that lie close to a bird's body and that keep it warm are called
a. horny beaks b. feet and legs covered with thick scales c. feathers and wings d. endothermic bodies FEATHERS	•
a. horny beaks b. feet and legs covered with thick scales c. feathers and wings d. endothermic bodies FEATHERS
a. horny beaks b. feet and legs covered with thick scales c. feathers and wings d. endothermic bodies FEATHERS	•
c. feathers and wings d. endothermic bodies FEATHERS
d. endothermic bodies FEATHERS 2. Birds preen by a. spreading oil on their feathers. b. fluttering their feathers. c. shedding old feathers. d. growing new feathers. 3. The process of shedding old feathers and growing new ones is called 4. Feathers that lie close to a bird's body and that keep it warm are called feathers. 5. Feathers on the outside of the bird's body that form its shape and help it to fly are called feathers. HIGH-ENERGY ANIMALS 6. How do birds cool off? FAST DIGESTION Match the correct description with the correct term. Write the letter in the space provided. 7. This organ stores food after the bird a. gizzard
2. Birds preen by a. spreading oil on their feathers. b. fluttering their feathers. c. shedding old feathers. d. growing new feathers. 3. The process of shedding old feathers and growing new ones is called 4. Feathers that lie close to a bird's body and that keep it warm are called feathers. 5. Feathers on the outside of the bird's body that form its shape and help it to fly are called feathers. HIGH-ENERGY ANIMALS 6. How do birds cool off? FAST DIGESTION Match the correct description with the correct term. Write the letter in the space provided 7. This organ stores food after the bird a. gizzard
2. Birds preen by a. spreading oil on their feathers. b. fluttering their feathers. c. shedding old feathers. d. growing new feathers. 3. The process of shedding old feathers and growing new ones is called 4. Feathers that lie close to a bird's body and that keep it warm are called feathers. 5. Feathers on the outside of the bird's body that form its shape and help it to fly are called feathers. HIGH-ENERGY ANIMALS 6. How do birds cool off? FAST DIGESTION Match the correct description with the correct term. Write the letter in the space provided. 7. This organ stores food after the bird a. gizzard	s di.
 a. spreading oil on their feathers. b. fluttering their feathers. c. shedding old feathers. d. growing new feathers. 3. The process of shedding old feathers and growing new ones is called
b. fluttering their feathers. c. shedding old feathers. d. growing new feathers. 3. The process of shedding old feathers and growing new ones is called
c. shedding old feathers. d. growing new feathers. 3. The process of shedding old feathers and growing new ones is called	• • •
d. growing new feathers. 3. The process of shedding old feathers and growing new ones is called
3. The process of shedding old feathers and growing new ones is called
4. Feathers that lie close to a bird's body and that keep it warm are called
4. Feathers that lie close to a bird's body and that keep it warm are called called
5. Feathers on the outside of the bird's body that form its shape and help it to fly are called feathers. HIGH-ENERGY ANIMALS 6. How do birds cool off? FAST DIGESTION Match the correct description with the correct term. Write the letter in the space provided. 7. This organ stores food after the bird a. gizzard	· 4
FAST DIGESTION Match the correct description with the correct term. Write the letter in the space provided.
HIGH-ENERGY ANIMALS 6. How do birds cool off? FAST DIGESTION Match the correct description with the correct term. Write the letter in the space provided.
HIGH-ENERGY ANIMALS 6. How do birds cool off? FAST DIGESTION Match the correct description with the correct term. Write the letter in the space provided.
FAST DIGESTION Match the correct description with the correct term. Write the letter in the space provided. 7. This organ stores food after the bird a. gizzard
FAST DIGESTION Match the correct description with the correct term. Write the letter in the space provided. 7. This organ stores food after the bird a. gizzard
FAST DIGESTION Match the correct description with the correct term. Write the letter in the space provided. 7. This organ stores food after the bird a. gizzard
Match the correct description with the correct term. Write the letter in the space provided. 7. This organ stores food after the bird a. gizzard
Match the correct description with the correct term. Write the letter in the space provided. 7. This organ stores food after the bird a. gizzard
Match the correct description with the correct term. Write the letter in the space provided. 7. This organ stores food after the bird a. gizzard
7. This organ stores food after the birda. gizzard
11
11
D. INLESCINE
8. This organ has small stones that grind the bird's food.
onus 100a.
9. This organ digests the food.

Name		Class	Date
Directed Reading A co	ontinued
FLYING
10. List four adaptations	that birds have	e for flight.
un nyaé dénaban n
au od like vergeta sla t	te Arrang
ili. Helitaya Helita ali ki k i kinabas	. d
· Bys	i •

GETTING OFF THE GRO	UND	e i jaran e e
11. The upward force or	a bird's wings	when it is in fli	ght is	en Menegywa.
called
12. A bird with	·	wings can g	lide for long	distances.
RAISING BABY BIRDS
and the second of the second of the second of		Maria
13. Birds reproduce			***
14. The act of sitting on	eggs to keep th	em warm until	they hatch is	3
called
Match the correct descriperovided.	ption with the c	correct term. Wr	ite the letter	in the space
15. In some bird	species, such a	s these, the	a. prece	ocial
	e the chore of r		b. gulls
16. In many spec	ies including t	his one the	c. altric	ial
	n the nest, and		d. song	birds
17. This word de immediately :		at are active
18. This word de helpless imm	scribes birds the		d .	